

“Future-Creation
(MIRAI)” Course
Kyushu University SPRING program

FY2025 Resilience Training

This course was implemented to provide students with the opportunity to consider and propose solutions to “real, unresolved issues” presented by companies, drawing on each student’s own perspectives and areas of expertise. In this instance, the program was conducted with the cooperation of Josui-an Co., Ltd., well known for its signature confectionery, Chikushi Mochi.

The theme of the program was:

“Let’s develop the No.1 popular souvenir confection from Fukuoka together!”

More than 30 diverse proposals were submitted by students from a wide range of academic fields and specialties. The program proved to be highly engaging and enjoyable for the students, and it also received strong positive feedback from the participating company. As a result, it became a highly meaningful opportunity for both students and the company, and concluded with great enthusiasm and overall success.

[Lecture Details]

■ First Session (on-line)

Date: Wednesday, August 6, 2025

■ Best Proposal Present (on-line)

Date: Friday, November 28, 2025

Presenters:

- ZHANG XINYI : "Swallowing-Friendly" Japanese Sweets for an Aging Society
- WU QINFEI : Development Project for Preservation Technology of Seasonal Daifuku Series Leveraging Josui-an's Strengths
- LI RUIYU : Development of Fukuoka's No. 1 Popular Souvenir Sweets

The slide is titled "創発科目の進化：創発共鳴場の構築（創発A）→ 社会課題の解決提案（創発B）". It features a diagram on the left showing a flow from "未解決の社会課題" (Unsolved social issues) to "課題の解決策" (Issue solutions), involving "研究担当者・人事採用担当者 等" (Researchers, HR, etc.) and "未来創造コース生" (Future Creation Course students). A central box highlights the "2025年度 創発科目B" (2025 Academic Year Creative Subject B) with the participating company "株式会社 練如水庵" (Rensui-an Co., Ltd.). The schedule includes a "課題説明会" (Issue explanation meeting) on August 6, "レポート提出" (Report submission) on September 30, and an "優秀提案者 online プレゼンテーション" (Excellent proposal online presentation) on November 28. The slide also mentions "福岡土産菓子人気No.1の商品を一緒に開発しよう！" (Let's develop the No.1 popular Fukuoka souvenir sweets together!). At the bottom, it says "MIRAI-SDGs プラットフォーム（社会課題と出会い、専門の殻を破り、創発するための共鳴場）".

The video recording shows a presentation slide for "創発科目B 福岡土産菓子人気No.1の商品開発 - 「めぐり焼き」". The slide features a close-up image of a "めぐり焼き" (Meguri-yaki) confection, which is a traditional Fukuoka souvenir sweet. The text on the slide includes "創発科目B 福岡土産菓子人気No.1の商品開発 - 「めぐり焼き」" and "伝統 × 環境 × 科学" (Tradition × Environment × Science). The video player interface at the top shows several participants in a virtual meeting, with names like "博士支援学部長 平松" and "LI RUIYU" visible.